Responsibilities & Requirements for Youth Court Participation

- My parent/guardian and I request participation in the Springville Youth Court.
- We understand that participation is voluntary.
- We understand that it is mandatory for a parent or legal guardian to accompany me to the Youth Court hearing.
- We understand we will be contacted by a Youth Court Representative and assigned a time for a hearing on the 2nd or 4th Thursday evening of the month.
- I am not currently under the authority of Juvenile Court for law violations, nor do I have pending charges in Juvenile Court.
- I agree to admit to the charges above in order to qualify for participation.
- I understand that those I have harmed will have an opportunity to address the court.
- I understand that I will be required to pay a Youth Court administration fee of $50 prior to my participation.
- I understand that I have a right to seek legal counsel, and that I am waiving any privilege against self-incrimination (giving information that could be used against you) and right to a speedy trial.
- I understand that if I volunteer to participate in the program, but fail to appear at the time and place specified I will be referred back to the referral source.
- I understand that a jury of my peers will impose a disposition (sentence) for my offense which I must be willing to accept. The sentence may include any of the following options: community service, tutoring, educational classes, counseling, restitution, essay, letter of apology, or other options deemed appropriate.
- I understand that I will be required to schedule and attend a brief Return Hearing upon completion of my disposition (sentence).
- I understand that if I fail to complete the disposition by the specified time, my case may be referred back to the referral source.
- I understand that my parent/legal guardian or I can choose to withdraw from this program at any time.

Springville Youth Court may decline to accept a youth for disposition or may terminate a youth from Youth Court participation at any time.
